

NOTICE OF PARTY REGISTRATION DECISION
APPLICATION TO CHANGE PARTY NAME AND ABBREVIATION IN THE REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES APPROVED
FUSION | PLANET RESCUE | WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION |
INNOVATION

Notice of decision under s 134(6) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918
(Electoral Act) and Statement of Reasons

1. I am writing in accordance with s 134(6) of the Electoral Act to notify you of the determination of the application to change the name and abbreviation of FUSION | Planet Rescue | Whistleblower Protection | Innovation (the Party) in the Register of Political Parties (the Register).
2. I am authorised to determine this application to change name and abbreviation (the Application) in the Register under Part XI of the Electoral Act as a delegate of the Electoral Commission.

Decision

3. I have decided to approve the Application to change the Register as outlined below:

Registered name: votefusion.org for big ideas

Registered abbreviation: votefusion.org

Materials I have taken into account

4. In making my decision, I have had regard to:
  - the Application received by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) on 21 August 2025;
  - Part XI of the Electoral Act;
  - the Register and the Register of Political Parties of each Australian State and Territory; and
  - the AEC's *Guide for Maintaining Party Registration*.

Findings of Fact

5. On the material before me, I make the following findings:

Procedural requirements

6. The Application:
  - was in writing, signed by three applicants who are members of the Party;
  - set out the names and addresses of the applicants and particulars of the capacity in which each applicant makes the Application; and
  - was accompanied by a fee of $500.

7. Accordingly, I am satisfied that the Application meets the requirements of ss 134(1)(b) and 134(2) of the Electoral Act.

Party name and abbreviation

8. The name vote fusion.org for big ideas and abbreviation vote fusion.org:
- do not comprise more than six words;
  - are not obscene, frivolous or vexatious;
  - are not the name, abbreviation or acronym of the name of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the party to which the application relates) that is a recognised political party;
  - do not so nearly resemble the name, or an abbreviation or acronym of the name of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the party to which the application relates) that is a recognised political party that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym;
  - are not one that a reasonable person would think suggests a connection or relationship exists between the party and a registered party if that connection or relationship does not in fact exist;
  - do not comprise the words 'Independent Party' and do not comprise or contain the word 'Independent' and:
    - the name, or an abbreviation or acronym of the name, of a recognised political party; or
    - matter that so nearly resembles the name, or an abbreviation or acronym of the name, of a recognised political party that the matter is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym, as the case may be.
9. Accordingly, the name and abbreviation do not contravene ss 4 or 129 of the Electoral Act.

Legislative framework – written particulars

10. Section 132(7) of the Electoral Act provides that the Electoral Commission shall not register a political party unless it has considered any particulars submitted objecting to a party's registration, or application in this instance, and any reply to particulars that may have been submitted. Section 132 of the Electoral Act also outlines the requirements for submitting and processing objections to an application.
11. On 18 and 19 November 2025, a notice of the application was advertised in 10 major newspapers circulating in each State and Territory of Australia and published on the AEC website. The closing date for written particulars objecting to the application was 18 December 2025.
12. In the context of this Application to change the Register, s 132(2)(b) of the Electoral Act, as modified by s 134(4), provides that a person can only submit written particulars objecting to this Application to change the Register if the person believes that:
- the application should be refused under s 129 of the Electoral Act (the name test); or
  - the application is not in accordance with s 134 of the Electoral Act (which sets out requirements for the contents of an application to change the Register).

13. Written particulars must also meet the following administrative requirements under ss 132(2)–(3) of the Electoral Act:
- be in writing;
  - be signed by the person (either physically, or electronically as per s 10(1) of the Electronic Transactions Act 1999);
  - specify a postal address of the objector that does not consist of a post office box number (noting the definition of ‘address’ in s 123(1) of the Electoral Act and the postal service requirements in s 140(1) of the Electoral Act);
  - be submitted within one-month after the publication of the relevant s 132(1) Notice on the AEC website on 18 November 2025; and
  - set out the person’s belief that the Application should be refused for a reason listed in s 132(2)(b) of the Electoral Act and provide grounds for that belief.
14. No written particulars were received.

Summary

15. I am satisfied on the materials before me that there is no basis to refuse the Application under s 129 of the Electoral Act. The Party’s name and abbreviation can be changed in the Register.

Approval of the Application

16. For the reasons outlined above, as a delegate of the Electoral Commission for the purposes of Part XI of the Electoral Act, I approve the application to change the name and abbreviation of FUSION | Planet Rescue | Whistleblower Protection | Innovation.

20. The Electoral Commission, which is comprised of three members, the Australian Electoral Commissioner, a judicial member and a non-judicial member, conducts internal reviews.
21. Under s 141(4) of the Electoral Act, the Electoral Commission consider an application for review and make a decision to either:
  - affirm the decision under review;

  - set aside the decision under review and make a decision in substitution for the decision set aside.

What can I do if I disagree with the outcome of an internal review?
