

REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has received the following application to change the name and abbreviation of a registered political party under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act).

current registered name:	Senator Online (Internet Voting Bills/Issues)
current registered abbreviation:	SOL
proposed registered name:	Online Direct Democracy – (Empowering the People!)
proposed registered abbreviation:	No abbreviation proposed

The application is made by three members of the party.

If you believe that the application should not succeed because, under the Electoral Act:

- the party's application has not been correctly made; or
- the party's proposed name or abbreviation is prohibited, you may lodge an objection. Objections must be received by the AEC by 19 January 2015, must be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to:

Post	Email	Fax
Funding and Disclosure Branch Australian Electoral Commission PO Box 6172 Kingston, ACT 2604	fad@aec.gov.au	(02) 6293 7655

For more detailed information on objecting to an application from a registered political party, please consult the AEC website at the following link, or contact the AEC by fax or email as above, or by phone on (02) 6271 4607.
