Dear AEC

This is an objection to an aspect of the Application for Registration by the Libertarian Party, advertised in the Canberra Times today.

Specifically, I object to the proposed logo insofar as it embodies the letters "LP".

In my submission, this is liable to be mistaken by ordinary electors as referring to the Liberal Party. The latter's logo is, of course, quite different, but the subtleties of graphic design will be lost on many electors who would assume that "LP" means Liberal Party and vote in error.

I submit the AEC should refuse to register the proposed logo of the Libertarian Party.

Yours sincerely

(STEPHEN )
