

REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has received the following application from the Australian Country Party to change a registered political party's name and logo and register an abbreviation under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act).

current registered name	Australian Country Party
current registered abbreviation
name of party:	Australia Party/Give It Back
abbreviation of party name:	Australia Party
the image displayed here is the proposed registered party logo for the Australian Country Party:

You may lodge an objection if you believe that the application by the Party above should not succeed because, under the Electoral Act:

- the application is not in accordance with section 126 of the Electoral Act; or
- the Electoral Commission should refuse to change the name or enter the abbreviation of the party in the Register under section 129; or
- the Electoral Commission should refuse to change or enter the logo of the party in the Register under section 129A.

Objections must be received by the AEC by 30 September 2018, must address the relevant criteria above and be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection.
