Dear Sir/Madam,

I wish to object to the proposal of the Trumpet of Patriots proposed name of "Australian Federation Party" on a further point that the acronym AFP that people may use is well known and generally used for the Australian Federal Police throughout Australia.

Thank you for your time in deciding this matter

This new name is confusing as it appears remarkably similar to the "Australian Federation Party Victoria" which was often abbreviated as "Ausfeds Victoria" or "Federation Party". There appears to be little correlation between the Trumpet of Patriots and "Australian Federation Party Victoria". In fact did not the Ausfeds compete against the Trumpet of Patriots.

This request appears to fail the test of the COMMONWEALTH ELECTORAL ACT 1918 - SECT 129 Part 1 (b), 3a (i) & (ii) and a few others.

The change of name appears to be clearly to confuse Australians (and especially Victorians) and attempt to confuse the process of voting. I humbly reqdo not grant this request

I would also like to raise the influence of Steve Bannon on the Trumpet of Patriots in past election(s) which may breach Section 44(i): Allegiance to a foreign power

According to Steve Bannon in the Jeffrey Epstein files...

I had Clive Palmer do the $60 million anti china and climate change ads

Yes that's the objective

Next stop Kazikstan

Yours Sincerely
