

Objection 27

Brenton Forrest

1 page

OBJECTION

Objection to the Name "Charles Bean" Being used for the new ACT Federal Electorate

I object to the new electorate being named for Charles Bean, who was a noted anti-Semite.

He hated General Sir John Monash because he was Jewish, and did everything he could to undermine his command and get him replaced because of this.

Therefore I consider Charles Bean an inappropriate name for a federal electorate in the ACT.

Regards,

Brenton Forrest