Good evening

As well as the absurd name condemning thousands of ACT citizens having to say they live in "Bean" (do we then need matching seats of Pea and Cabbage?) your brief biography of Charles Bean does not mention Bean's collusion with Keith Murdoch to lobby Billy Hughes to dismiss John Monash largely on racist grounds - the father of "the dirty digger" worked with Bean to lobby "the little digger".

Instead of Bean, why not honour Roland Wilson, or if you want a great WW1 figure, Pompey Elliott?
