The augmented Electoral Commission has adopted all other elements of the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution.

The Division of Throsby has been renamed the 'Division of Whitlam', in honour of the former Prime Minister, the Hon. Edward Gough Whitlam AC QC (1916–2014). While the Division of Hunter has been abolished, the name has been retained and the name of 'Charlton' has been withdrawn. The names of the remaining 45 electoral divisions have been retained.

Background

A redistribution of electoral divisions is the process where electoral divisions and their boundaries and names are reviewed, and may be altered, to ensure, as near as practicable:

- each state and territory gains representation in the House of Representatives in proportion to its population, and
- there are a similar number of electors in each electoral division for a given state or territory.

The Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act) provides for when a redistribution is to be conducted and the processes and timelines to be followed in doing so, including how and when public consultation is to occur.

A redistribution of electoral divisions in New South Wales was required as the number of members of the House of Representatives that is to be chosen for New South Wales at the next general election has decreased from 48 to 47.

The redistribution process commenced with a direction from the Electoral Commission on Monday 1 December 2014.

The Redistribution Committee released its proposed redistribution on Friday 16 October 2015. Interested individuals and parties were invited to make written objections on the proposed redistribution and written comments on objections via notices published in:

- the Commonwealth Government Notices Gazette (the Gazette) on Friday 16 October 2015,
- The Sydney Morning Herald, The Daily Telegraph and The Weekend Australian on Saturday 17 October 2015,
- The Land on Thursday 22 October 2015, and
- 23 regional newspapers.

Seven hundred and ninety-one objections were made available for public perusal on Monday 16 November 2015 and 26 written comments on objections were made available from Monday 30 November 2015. Two inquiries into objections were held:

- 30 oral submissions were made at the inquiry held in Sydney on Wednesday 16 December 2015, and
- 18 oral submissions were made at the inquiry held in Port Macquarie on Friday 18 December November 2015.

The augmented Electoral Commission found the written submissions made throughout the redistribution process, together with the submissions presented by those participating in the inquiries, to be a valuable contribution and is appreciative of the time and effort expended by all those who contributed. The redistribution has been informed by a thorough consideration of these submissions, and complies with all relevant provisions of the Electoral Act.

Redistribution of New South Wales

The redistribution covers:

- which electoral division to abolish,
- where to draw the boundaries between electoral divisions in New South Wales to accommodate the abolition of an electoral division, and
- the names of electoral divisions.

Boundaries of electoral divisions

In determining the boundaries of electoral divisions in a state, the Electoral Act requires the augmented Electoral Commission to ensure that the enrolment numbers for each electoral division remain within the two ranges of the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division.

At the end of Monday 1 December 2014, the day on which the redistribution commenced, 4 863 593 electors were enrolled in New South Wales. The current enrolment quota was therefore 103 481. As the Electoral Act requires proposed electoral divisions to be within plus or minus 10 per cent of this quota, the augmented Electoral Commission was required to construct electoral divisions which contain between 93 132 and 113 829 electors.

The augmented Electoral Commission is also required to ensure that the number of electors in each proposed electoral division will be within 3.5 per cent of the projected enrolment quota at the projection time of Sunday 25 August 2019. As the number of electors projected to be enrolled in New South Wales at this time is 5 195 490 and the projected enrolment quota is 110 542, the augmented Electoral Commission was required to construct electoral divisions which are projected to contain between 106 673 and 114 411 electors on Sunday 25 August 2019.

Abolishing an electoral division will, of necessity, result in significant elector movement away from the abolished electoral division and will also require consequential boundary changes and elector movements across the state to ensure that all electoral divisions remain within the two permissible ranges. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that the Redistribution Committee's proposal met the requirements of the Electoral Act, and to the extent possible, provided electoral divisions that accommodated future growth while recognising and maintaining many communities of interest and using strong boundaries.

After careful consideration of the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution, the objections and comments on objections received and further information provided in oral submissions at the inquiries, the augmented Electoral Commission adopted the Redistribution Committee's proposal with some minor changes. These better reflect some communities of interest, to the extent possible, while complying with the mandatory numerical requirements of the Electoral Act regarding the size of electoral divisions.

Electoral division to be abolished

The augmented Electoral Commission has adopted the Redistribution Committee's proposal to abolish the Division of Hunter.

Adjusting the boundaries of existing electoral divisions

The augmented Electoral Commission agreed with much of what was proposed by the Redistribution Committee but found some areas where improvements could be made.

As a number of the changes advocated in objections to the proposed redistribution, comments on objections and submissions to the inquiries were able to be accommodated within the permissible ranges for the number of electors within an electoral division, or with minimal boundary adjustments to the surrounding electoral divisions, the augmented Electoral Commission made these changes. As a result, 18 divisions of the augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution differ from that proposed by the Redistribution Committee.

While acknowledging the merits of a number of other ideas advocated in objections, comments on objections and submissions to the inquiries, they were unable to be accepted because the resultant adjustments to the boundaries would have created electoral divisions which fell outside the numerical ranges permitted by the Electoral Act. In the augmented Electoral Commission's opinion, any alternative adjustments would have caused significant flow-on effects for other electoral divisions across New South Wales in order to meet the requirements of the Electoral Act.

Naming of electoral divisions

The Redistribution Committee proposed:

- renaming the Division of Throsby as the Division of Whitlam, in recognition of the former Prime Minister, the Hon. Edward Gough Whitlam AC QC (1916–2014),
- renaming the existing Division of Charlton as the Division of Hunter, which will enable the retention of an electoral division name which was first used in 1901, and
- retaining the existing names of the remaining 45 electoral divisions.

A number of objections to the proposed redistribution concerned the Redistribution Committee's proposal to rename the Division of Throsby and argued for a different electoral division to be named after the former Prime Minister.

The 'Guidelines for naming federal electoral divisions' note that consideration should be given to naming electoral divisions after former Prime Ministers. The augmented Electoral Commission agreed the arguments against renaming the proposed Division of Whitlam were not substantive enough to warrant change from the Redistribution Committee's proposal and the electoral division will be known as the Division of Whitlam.

A number of objections to the proposed redistribution and comments on objections advocated renaming other electoral divisions.

The augmented Electoral Commission unanimously agreed the arguments offered in support of altering the names of other electoral divisions were not substantive enough to warrant change from the Redistribution Committee's proposal and the electoral divisions will be known as the names proposed by the Redistribution Committee.

The augmented Electoral Commission's electoral division names have been offered for the reasons set out in Chapter 2 of this report.

Elector movements

Overall, 927 835 electors enrolled in New South Wales (or 19.08 per cent of all electors enrolled in New South Wales on Monday 1 December 2014) will change their federal electoral division as a result of this redistribution. Electors from the former Division of Throsby who have been retained in the renamed Division of Whitlam are not included in these numbers.

Chapter 1 Background and context

This chapter outlines the legislative requirements of the redistribution from the release of the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution to the determination of the names and boundaries of electoral divisions by the augmented Electoral Commission.

- 1. A redistribution of electoral divisions is the process where electoral divisions and their boundaries and names are reviewed, and may be altered, to ensure, as near as practicable:
 - each state and territory gains representation in the House of Representatives in proportion to its population, and
 - there are a similar number of electors in each electoral division for a given state or territory.

Compliance with legislative requirements

- 2. The Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act) specifies that a redistribution process should be undertaken when:
 - the number of members of the House of Representatives to which a state or territory is entitled has changed (relative population change),
 - the number of electors in more than one-third of the electoral divisions in a state (or one of the electoral divisions in the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory) deviates from the average divisional enrolment by over ten per cent for a period of more than two months, or
 - a period of seven years has elapsed since the last redistribution process was determined.¹
- 3. The procedures to be followed in conducting a redistribution process are also specified in the Electoral Act. Appendix A summarises the legislative requirements which have been followed in conducting this redistribution. Each of these requirements is discussed in further detail in this Chapter.

Background to this redistribution

4. The steps followed from the commencement of the redistribution of New South Wales to the release of the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution are outlined in Chapter 1 of the Redistribution Committee's report: Proposed redistribution of New South Wales into electoral divisions.²

¹ Sub-section 59(2) of the Electoral Act specifies when a redistribution process should be undertaken.

² Redistribution Committee for New South Wales, Proposed redistribution of New South Wales into electoral divisions, October 2015, page 8–13

Requirement to conduct a redistribution of electoral divisions in New South Wales and commencement

- 5. On Thursday 13 November 2014, the then acting Electoral Commissioner made a determination under sub-section 48(1) of the Electoral Act of the number of members of the House of Representatives each state and territory would be entitled to at the next general election.³
- 6. As a result of this determination, New South Wales' entitlement decreased from 48 to 47 members of the House of Representatives.
- 7. In accordance with sub-section 59(1) of the Electoral Act, the Electoral Commission published a notice in the Commonwealth Government Notices Gazette (the Gazette) on Monday
 1 December 2014 directing that a redistribution of New South Wales into 47 electoral divisions commence.

Current enrolment quota

8. Section 65 of the Electoral Act requires the Electoral Commissioner, as soon as practicable after the redistribution process commences, to determine the current enrolment quota using the following formula:

Number of electors enrolled in New South Wales as at the end of the day on which the redistribution commenced (Monday 1 December 2014)

Number of members of the House of Representatives to which New South Wales is entitled

- 9. In calculating this quota, sub-section 65(2) of the Electoral Act provides that:
 - where the result is less than 0.5, the number is rounded down to the nearest whole number, or
 - where the result is equal to or greater than 0.5, the number is rounded up to the nearest whole number.
- 10. Table A shows the figures used to calculate the current enrolment quota and the resultant range of the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division (discussed further in the section titled 'Statutory requirements for the making of a redistribution').

103 481

3 A copy of this determination is available on the AEC website.

- 11. The then acting Electoral Commissioner signed a written instrument on Monday 8 December 2014, as required by sub-section 65(1) of the Electoral Act, determining the quota of electors for the purposes of the redistribution to be 103 481.
- As part of the redistribution process, the augmented Electoral Commission is required to ensure that the number of electors in an electoral division does not vary by more than or less than 10 per cent from the current enrolment quota (see Appendix B).

Enrolment projections and projected enrolment quota

13. When determining a redistribution, the augmented Electoral Commission is required by paragraph 73(4)(a) of the Electoral Act to ensure, as far as practicable, the number of electors enrolled in an electoral division at the projection time will not vary by more than or less than 3.5 per cent of the projected enrolment quota. The projected enrolment quota is calculated using the following formula:

Estimated total number of electors enrolled in New South Wales at the projection time (Sunday 25 August 2019)

Number of members of the House of Representatives to which New South Wales is entitled

14. Table B shows the figures used to calculate the projected enrolment quota and the resultant range of the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division at the projection time (discussed further in the section titled 'Statutory requirements for the making of a redistribution').

Table B: Projected enrolment quota and permissible range for New South Wales

Estimated total number of electors enrolled in New South Wales at the projection time (Sunday 25 August 2019)	5 195 490
Number of members of the House of Representatives to which New South Wales is entitled	47
Projected enrolment quota for New South Wales	110 542
Permissible maximum number of electors in an electoral division at the projection time (projected enrolment quota + 3.5 per cent)	114 411
Permissible minimum number of electors in an electoral division at the projection time (projected enrolment quota – 3.5 per cent)	106 673

Release of proposed redistribution of New South Wales

15. Sub-section 66(1) of the Electoral Act requires the Redistribution Committee to make a proposed redistribution, with section 67 further requiring that written reasons for the proposed redistribution be provided.

- 16. In its report Proposed redistribution of New South Wales into electoral divisions, the Redistribution Committee outlined its proposed redistribution of New South Wales and in Chapter 2 explained the reasons behind its proposal.⁴ On Friday 16 October 2015, this report was made available on the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) website and in each office of the AEC located in New South Wales.
- 17. In addition, and as required by sub-section 68(1) of the Electoral Act, the following information was also made available at each AEC office in New South Wales from Friday 16 October 2015:
 - maps showing the names and boundaries of each proposed electoral division in New South Wales, and
 - copies of the 23 suggestions and 157 comments on suggestions made to the redistribution.

Invitation for interested parties to submit objections and comments on objections

- 18. The Redistribution Committee is required by sub-sections 68(1) and (2) of the Electoral Act to draw attention to the redistribution material able to be viewed at AEC offices in New South Wales and to invite written objections relating to the proposed redistribution of New South Wales and written comments on objections via:
 - a notice published in the Gazette on a Friday
 - a notice published in two newspapers circulating throughout New South Wales, and
 - a notice published in such regional newspapers circulating in regions affected by the proposed redistribution as determined by the Redistribution Committee.

 - The Land on Thursday 22 October 2015, and
 - 23 regional newspapers (see Appendix C for details of where and when notices were published).
- 20. In accordance with section 68 of the Electoral Act, these notices included a brief outline of the proposed redistribution, where to view the proposed redistribution, how to participate in the process and where to find further information.⁵ As required by paragraph 68(1)(d):
 - the notices published in The Sydney Morning Herald, The Daily Telegraph and The Land included maps showing the names and boundaries of each proposed electoral division in New South Wales, and

⁴ Redistribution Committee for New South Wales, op. cit., page 20-86

⁵ A disc included in Proposed redistribution of New South Wales into electoral divisions provided the material which sub-section 68(1) of the Electoral Act specifies is to be made available at each office of the AEC in the state undergoing redistribution.

- the notices published in the regional newspapers listed in Appendix C included maps showing the names and boundaries of proposed electoral divisions in areas covered by the newspaper's circulation.
- 21. Table C presents information on the options for making an objection or comment on an objection, and the extent to which these options were used.

Consideration of objections and comments on objections by the augmented Electoral Commission

- 29. The augmented Electoral Commission is required by sub-section 72(1) of the Electoral Act to consider all objections and comments on objections.
- 30. In formulating its redistribution of New South Wales, the augmented Electoral Commission considered each of the 789 objections and 26 comments on objections. The augmented Electoral Commission found the written submissions made throughout the redistribution process to be a valuable contribution and is appreciative of the time and effort expended by all those who contributed.
- 31. Chapter 2 and Appendix F outline the key themes contained in these objections and comments on objections, and how the augmented Electoral Commission responded to them, having regard to the requirements of the Electoral Act.

Inquiry by the augmented Electoral Commission into objections

- 32. Sub-section 72(3) of the Electoral Act requires the augmented Electoral Commission to hold an inquiry into an objection unless it is of the opinion:
 - the matters raised in the objection were raised, or are substantially the same as matters that were raised, in:
 - suggestions relating to the redistribution lodged with the Redistribution Committee; or
 - comments lodged with the Redistribution Committee; or
 - the objection is frivolous or vexatious.
- 33. At an inquiry, individuals or organisations may address the augmented Electoral Commission on any matter raised in an objection to the proposed redistribution of NSW or in a comment on these objections. Matters raised in objections and comments on objections included the:
 - location of the boundary between the Division of Barton and the Division of Cook
 - electoral division in which Paddington is to be located
 - location of the boundary between the Division of Cowper and the Division of Lyne
 - electoral division in which Camden council is to be located
 - location of the boundary between the Division of Grayndler and the Division of Reid
 - electoral division in which Bundanoon, Exeter, Penrose and Wingello are to be located
 - electoral division in which the Shire of Forbes is to be located
 - name of the proposed Division of Whitlam
- The manner in which inquiries into objections are to be conducted by the augmented Electoral Commission are specified in sub-sections 72(4) to 72(9) of the Electoral Act.
- 35. The augmented Electoral Commission held two inquiries:
 - one on Wednesday 16 December 2015 in Sydney, and
 - one on Friday 18 December 2015 in Port Macquarie.
- 36. Invitations to attend the inquiries were sent to those who made objections to the proposed redistribution or commented on objections. Notices of invitation were placed in:
 - The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph on Wednesday 9 December 2015,
 - the Coffs Coast Advocate on Wednesday 9 December 2015, and
 - the Port Macquarie Independent on Thursday 10 December 2015.
- 37. Appendix G lists those who appeared at these inquiries and transcripts are included with this report. The augmented Electoral Commission found the submissions presented by those participating at the inquiries to be a valuable contribution and is appreciative of the time and effort expended by all those who contributed.
- The augmented Electoral Commission's response to the matters raised at the inquiries is summarised in Chapter 2 and Appendix F.

Conclusion of consideration of objections by the augmented Electoral Commission

- 39. Sub-section 72(2) of the Electoral Act requires the augmented Electoral Commission to conclude its consideration of the objections before the expiration of 60 days after the close of comments on objections. As comments on objections closed on Friday 27 November 2015, the augmented Electoral Commission was required to conclude its consideration by Tuesday 26 January 2016.
- 40. Consideration of objections by the augmented Electoral Commission was concluded on Tuesday 12 January 2016.

Statutory requirements for the making of a redistribution

- 41. Section 73 of the Electoral Act required the augmented Electoral Commission to adhere to specific criteria in forming the proposed boundaries.
- 42. The augmented Electoral Commission was required to ensure that the number of electors in each electoral division in New South Wales would:
 - not be less than 90 per cent or more than 110 per cent of the current enrolment quota (see Table A for the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors at this time), and
 - not be less than 96.5 per cent or more than 103.5 per cent of the projected enrolment quota at the projection time of Sunday 25 August 2019 (see Table B for the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors at this time).
- 43. The augmented Electoral Commission also gave due consideration, to the extent possible, to:
 - · community of interests in the electoral divisions including economic, social and regional interests,
 - means of communication and travel in the electoral divisions,
 - the physical features and area of the electoral divisions, and
 - the boundaries of existing electoral divisions.
- 44. Further details regarding these requirements are in Appendix B.
- 45. Appendix H outlines the mechanics of constructing electoral divisions.

Public announcement by the augmented Electoral Commission

- Once its inquiries into objections are completed, sub-section 72(10) of the Electoral Act requires the augmented Electoral Commission to:
 - make a proposed redistribution of the state, and
 - make a public announcement.

- 47. While the augmented Electoral Commission is able to choose the means by which this public announcement is issued,⁹ sub-section 72(12) requires the following content:
 - the substance of the augmented Electoral Commission's findings or conclusions on the initial objections to the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution,
 - the augmented Electoral Commission's proposed redistribution of the state, and
 - a statement whether, in the opinion of the augmented Electoral Commission, its proposed redistribution is significantly different from the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution.¹⁰
- 48. The augmented Electoral Commission did not consider their proposed redistribution to be significantly different to that of the Redistribution Committee. The text of the augmented Electoral Commission's public announcement, which was made on Thursday 14 January 2016, is at Appendix I.

Determination made by the augmented Electoral Commission for New South Wales

- In accordance with sub-section 73(1) of the Electoral Act, the names and boundaries of electoral divisions for a state are determined when the augmented Electoral Commission publishes a notice in the Gazette.
- 50. The text of the notice published in the Gazette on Thursday 25 February 2016 is at Appendix J.

9 Paragraph 72(10)(b) of the Electoral Act states the announcement may be made by a statement to the media or by other expeditious means.

10 In the event the augmented Electoral Commission considers their proposed redistribution to be significantly different to that of the Redistribution Committee, paragraph 72(12)(d) specifies the inclusion of additional information in the public announcement.

Chapter 2 The augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution and reasons for the redistribution

This chapter outlines the augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution and the reasons for this redistribution. Also included is the augmented Electoral Commission's approach to formulating the boundaries and names of electoral divisions.

Augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution of New South Wales

- The augmented Electoral Commission was required to redistribute New South Wales into 47 electoral divisions.
- 52. There are three components to the augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution:
 - which electoral division to abolish,
 - where to draw the boundaries between electoral divisions in New South Wales to accommodate the abolition of an electoral division, and
 - the names of electoral divisions.
- 53. The electoral division which has been abolished is the Division of Hunter, as proposed by the Redistribution Committee.
- 54. The augmented Electoral Commission has adopted the Redistribution Committee's proposal to:
 - rename the Division of Throsby as the Division of Whitlam, in recognition of the former Prime Minister, the Hon. Edward Gough Whitlam AC QC (1916–2014),
 - rename the proposed Division of Charlton as the Division of Hunter, which will enable the retention of an electoral division name which was first used in 1901, and
 - retain the existing names of the remaining 45 electoral divisions.
- 55. With respect to boundaries of electoral divisions, the augmented Electoral Commission has adopted those proposed by the Redistribution Committee with the following modifications:
 - all of the former Yallaroi Shire, and a small part of the former Bingara Shire, both now within the Gwydir Shire, are now located in the Division of Parkes.
 - the entirety of the Carrathool Shire is now located in the Division of Farrer

- the Lockhart Shire is now located in the Division of Riverina
- Bundanoon, Exeter, Meryla, Penrose, part of Werai and Wingello are now located in the Division of Hume
- the entire locality of Paddington is now located in the Division of Wentworth
- Darlinghurst (except for the area bounded by South Dowling, Oxford and Flinders Streets) and Potts Point are now located in the Division of Sydney
- that part of Moore Park to the north of Dacey Avenue is now located in the Division of Wentworth
- the entirety of the Drummoyne Peninsula is now located in the Division of Reid
- parts of Canterbury, Hurlstone Park, Dulwich Hill and Marrickville (to the north of the Sydenham Bankstown railway line) are now located in the Division of Grayndler
- the locality of Sydenham is now located in the Division of Grayndler
- part of Beverly Hills (east of King Georges Road and south of the M5 East Motorway), part of Hurstville (north of the Illawarra railway line) and part of Kingsgrove (west of Kingsgrove Road and south of the M5 East Motorway) are now located in the Division of Barton
- the area bounded by the Princes Highway, Jubilee Avenue, the Illawarra railway line, Andover and Francis Streets at Carlton is now located in the Division of Banks
- part of Auburn (to the south of the M4 Western Motorway and to the west of St Hilliers Road) and part of Lidcombe (to the west of Olympic Drive) are now located in the Division of Blaxland
- the area bounded by King and Smithfield Roads and Prospect and Orphan School Creeks at Fairfield and Fairfield West is now located in the Division of McMahon
- the localities of Edensor Park (to Smithfield Road), Bossley Park (except the area to the east of Mimosa Road and to the north of Polding Street), Prairiewood (to King Road), Greenfield Park (to Smithfield Road) and the built-up area of Abbotsbury are now located in the Division of Fowler
- parts of Badgerys Creek and Kemps Creek south of Elizabeth Drive, that part of Bringelly to the east of The Northern Road and north of Bringelly Road, and that part of Rossmore to the north of Bringelly Road are now located in the Division of Werriwa
- those parts of East Hills, Panania, Revesby and Padstow between the South Western Motorway and the East Hills railway line are now located in the Division of Banks
- some minor changes to the boundary between the Divisions of Berowra and Mitchell which involve no elector movement, and
- some minor changes to the boundary between the Divisions of Grayndler and Sydney which involve no elector movement.

Augmented Electoral Commission's approach to formulating electoral boundaries

- 56. In deciding whether to amend the Redistribution Committee's proposal to incorporate an idea advocated in an objection, comment on objection or submission to the inquiries, the augmented Electoral Commission was mindful of whether the amendment would improve the Redistribution Committee's proposal. As the augmented Electoral Commission's formulation of electoral divisions must conform to the requirements of the Electoral Act, potential amendments were also analysed with respect to the requirements of sub-section 73(4) of the Electoral Act.
- 57. The primary requirement was to ensure each electoral division remains within the permissible maximum and minimum number of electors around the projected enrolment quota (see Table B) and the current enrolment quota (see Table A). In modifying the boundaries of any electoral division proposed by the Redistribution Committee, the augmented Electoral Commission was therefore required to ensure that all electoral divisions continued to fall within the permissible ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division.
- 58. Similarly, when considering whether to adjust the boundary of an electoral division to better reflect one community of interest, the augmented Electoral Commission observed that such an adjustment could prompt further concerns about one or more different communities of interest in those electoral divisions impacted by such an adjustment.

Abolition of an electoral division

- 59. The Redistribution Committee proposed abolishing the existing Division of Hunter.¹¹
- 60. A small number of objections argued the electoral division should not be abolished.¹²
- 61. The augmented Electoral Commission considered the arguments offered were not substantive enough to warrant change from the Redistribution Committee's proposal.
- 62. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged and the Division of Hunter which existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution on Monday 1 December 2014 is abolished.

Adjusting the boundaries of existing electoral divisions

- 63. The Redistribution Committee considered it's proposed redistribution would result in electoral divisions which:
 - meet the requirements of the Electoral Act, and to the extent possible:
 - reflect the population trends identified by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS),
 - maintain and/or unite communities of interest,
 - make use of local government boundaries, particularly in rural areas, and
 - provide strong and readily identifiable electoral division boundaries.¹³

¹² O46 - Falco Lombardi and O113 - Sarah Lukeman argued against the abolition of the Division of Hunter.

¹³ Redistribution Committee for New South Wales, op. cit., page 7

- 64. The Redistribution Committee's proposal made changes to all but one electoral division, although a number of these changes were taken to provide more appropriate boundaries and did not result in any elector movement.¹⁴ Alternatives to the majority of these changes did not feature in objections, comments on objections or submissions to the inquiries.
- 65. The augmented Electoral Commission considered the Redistribution Committee's proposal and agreed with much of what was proposed. Where an alternative to the Redistribution Committee's proposal was advocated, the augmented Electoral Commission considered whether modifications should be made to address the alternative. The following paragraphs, together with Appendix F, outline the augmented Electoral Commission's decision with respect to the alternatives offered.

The location of the Gwydir Shire

- 66. The Redistribution Committee had proposed moving the Gwydir Shire from the Division of Parkes to the proposed Division of New England.
- 67. Objections concerned whether all or the northern part of the Shire, covered by the former Yallaroi Shire, should be retained in the proposed Division of Parkes on the basis of community of interest.¹⁵
- 68. The augmented Electoral Commission noted the arguments made with respect to community of interest in favour of placing part of the former Yallaroi Shire in the proposed Division of Parkes. Making this adjustment did not cause the Division of New England or the Division of Parkes to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 69. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by moving all of the former Yallaroi Shire, and a small part of the former Bingara Shire, both now within the Gwydir Shire, into the Division of Parkes.

The location of the Carrathool Shire

- 70. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving that part of the Carrathool Shire located mainly to the north of the Mid Western Highway from the Division of Riverina into the proposed Division of Parkes.
- Objections advocated that the Shire, in its entirety, should be located in the same electoral division as other Riverina towns due to their shared community of interest.¹⁶
- 72. The augmented Electoral Commission noted the arguments made with respect to locating those local government areas in the Riverina/Murray area in the same electoral division. Moving part of the Gwydir Shire from the Division of New England to the Division of Parkes enabled Carrathool Shire to be united in the Division of Farrer. This adjustment kept both the Division of Farrer and the Division of Parkes within ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.

- 73. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by locating the entirety of the Carrathool Shire in the Division of Farrer.
- 74. As a result of this decision, all of the 18 member councils and their communities represented by the Riverina and Murray Regional Organisation of Councils will be contained within the one federal electoral division.¹⁷

The location of the Lockhart Shire

- 75. The Redistribution Committee had proposed retaining the Lockhart Shire in the proposed Division of Farrer.
- 76. Objections advocated the Shire should be located in the proposed Division of Riverina for community of interest reasons, particularly communication and travel.¹⁸
- 77. Uniting the Carrathool Shire in the Division of Farrer enabled the augmented Electoral Commission to make adjustments to the boundary between the Divisions of Farrer and Riverina which did not cause either electoral division to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 78. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by locating the Lockhart Shire in the Division of Riverina.

The electoral division in which Bundanoon, Exeter, Penrose and Wingello are located

- 79. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving the areas of Bundanoon, Penrose, Wingello and part of Exeter from the Division of Hume to the proposed Division of Whitlam.
- 80. Objections based on community of interest reasons advocated these areas should be located in the proposed Division of Hume and not the proposed Division of Whitlam (formerly the Division of Throsby).¹⁹
- 81. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of the former Divsion of Throsby, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required to ensure the number of electors in the electoral division was within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 82. The augmented Electoral Commission also noted the strong arguments made with respect to community of interest. Making this adjustment did not cause either the Division of Hume or the Division of Whitlam to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 83. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved and has moved Bundanoon, Exeter, Meryla, Penrose, part of Werai and Wingello to the Division of Hume.

¹⁷ The member councils are: Albury, Balranald, Berrigan, Carrathool, Conargo, Corowa, Deniliquin, Greater Hume, Griffith, Hay, Jerilderie, Leeton, Murray, Murrumbidgee, Narrandera, Urana, Wakool and Wentworth.

The location of Paddington and consequential changes

- 84. The Redistribution Committee proposed transferring electors from the Division of Wentworth to the proposed Division of Sydney in the area of Woolloomooloo, East Sydney, Darlinghurst, Victoria Barracks and Moore Park.
- Objections concerned whether Paddington should or should not be split between the proposed Divisions of Sydney and Wentworth, with alternative boundaries proposed.²⁰
- 86. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Sydney and Wentworth, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required to ensure the number of electors in both electoral divisions were within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 87. Noting the strong arguments made with respect to community of interest and the location of Paddington, the augmented Electoral Commission examined whether, given other changes made in the Redistribution Committee proposal to these two divisions, it would be possible to accommodate the relocation of Paddington within the requirements of the Electoral Act without making alterations to a significant number of electoral divisions. The augmented Electoral Commission found alterations could be made, with no impact on any other divisions, to accommodate this adjustment without causing the Division of Sydney or the Division to Wentworth to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 88. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by:
 - locating the entirety of Paddington in the Division of Wentworth,
 - locating Darlinghurst (except for the area bounded by South Dowling, Oxford and Flinders Streets) and Potts Point in the Division of Sydney, and
 - locating that part of Moore Park to the north of Dacey Avenue in the Division of Wentworth.

The location of the boundary between the Divisions of Grayndler and Reid and consequential changes

- The Redistribution Committee proposed moving the areas of Drummoyne, Russell Lea, Rodd Point and Rodd Island from the Division of Reid into the proposed Division of Grayndler.
- 90. Objections concerned whether these areas, which share a community of interest, should be split between the proposed Division of Grayndler and the proposed Division of Reid, offered alternatives to facilitate suggested changes, and also including following local government boundaries.²¹

²⁰ Objections which referred to this matter include those listed in Table H and Table I and O19 – Jeff Waddell; O177 – John E Lush; O401 – Dr Mark Mulcair; O464 – Paul Blackman. - 91. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Grayndler and Reid, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required to ensure the number of electors in both electoral divisions were within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 92. After considering the arguments made utilising community of interest, the augmented Electoral Commission noted the Drummoyne Peninsula, in its entirety, could be located in the Division of Reid if a series of adjustments were made to surrounding electoral divisions in order to ensure the numerical requirements of the Electoral Act would continue to be met. As these changes would better reflect communities of interest, the augmented Electoral Commission concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by placing:
 - the entirety of the Drummoyne Peninsula in the Division of Reid,
 - parts of Canterbury, Hurlstone Park, Dulwich Hill and Marrickville (north of the Sydenham Bankstown railway line) in the Division of Grayndler,
 - the locality of Sydenham in the Division of Grayndler
 - part of Beverly Hills (east of King Georges Road and south of the M5 East Motorway), part of Hurstville (north of the Illawarra railway line) and part of Kingsgrove (west of Kingsgrove Road and south of the M5 East Motorway) in the Division of Barton
 - the area bounded by the Princes Highway, Jubilee Avenue, the Illawarra railway line, and Andover and Francis Streets at Carlton in the Division of Banks
 - part of Auburn (to the south of the M4 Western Motorway and to the west of St Hilliers Road) and part of Lidcombe (to the west of Olympic Drive) in the Division of Blaxland.

The location of the boundary between the Divisions of Barton and Cook

- 93. The Redistribution Committee proposed placing parts of, or the entire localities of, Connells Point, Kyle Bay, Blakehurst, Carrs Park, Kogarah, Beverley Park, Kogarah Bay, Sandringham, Sans Souci, Dolls Point, Ramsgate, Ramsgate Beach and Monterey in the proposed Division of Cook.
- 94. Objections concerned whether these areas should be located in the proposed Division of Barton or the proposed Division of Cook.²² Strong feelings were expressed regarding the community of interest within the St George region and the desirability of the region forming the basis of an electoral division.
- 95. While noting these strong feelings, the augmented Electoral Commission observed the placement of the boundaries of electoral divisions does not determine the ongoing existence of community, social, economic, regional or suburban interests, with the population of such areas often too large to be accommodated within a single electoral division. The augmented Electoral Commission further noted that both the Divisions of Barton and Cook, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution were within the ranges for minimum and maximum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act, but were required to change to accommodate the alterations made to the boundaries of surrounding electoral divisions which were outside these ranges. Adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require further adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division could be met.

96. The augmented Electoral Commission concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged for this boundary.

The location of Fairfield and consequential changes

- 97. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving Fairfield, Fairfield Heights and Fairfield West from the Division of McMahon to the proposed Division of Fowler.
- 98. One objection advocated locating Fairfield in the proposed Division of McMahon as the proposed Division of Fowler contained the three central business districts of Fairfield, Cabramatta and Liverpool, resulting in McMahon having no central focus or a transport hub.²³
- 99. The augmented Electoral Commission noted the arguments made with respect to community of interest and means of travel within the electoral division in favour of placing Fairfield in the proposed Division of McMahon. Making this and a subsequent adjustment did not cause the Division of Fowler or the Division of McMahon to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.
- 100. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by placing:
 - the area bounded by King and Smithfield Roads and Prospect and Orphan School Creeks at Fairfield and Fairfield West in the Division of McMahon, and
 - the localities of Edensor Park (to Smithfield Road), Bossley Park (except the area east of Mimosa Road and north of Polding Street), Prairiewood (to King Road), Greenfield Park (to Smithfield Road), and the built-up area of Abbotsbury in the Division of Fowler.

The location of Badgerys Creek

- 101. The Redistribution Committee proposed locating the area of Badgerys Creek in the proposed Division of Hume.
- 102. Objections advocated locating Badgerys Creek in the proposed Division of Werriwa on the basis of community of interest and means of travel.²⁴
- 103. The augmented Electoral Commission noted the arguments made with respect to the placement of Badgerys Creek in the proposed Division of Werriwa. Following the transfer of the Bundanoon area to the Division of Hume, the augmented Electoral Commission was able to make adjustments to the boundary between the Divisions of Hume and Werriwa which did not cause either of the Divisions of Hume or Werriwa to fall outside either of the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division permitted by the Electoral Act.

COB21 – Liberal Party of Australia (NSW Division) and COB24 – Australian Labor Party (NSW Branch) referred to this matter. IS30 – Australian Labor Party (NSW Branch) referred to this matter.

104. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal could be improved by locating parts of Badgerys Creek and Kemps Creek to the south of Elizabeth Drive, that part of Bringelly to the east of The Northern Road and to the north of Bringelly Road, and that part of Rossmore to the north of Bringelly Road in the Division of Werriwa.

The electoral division in which Camden township and surrounding suburbs are to be located

- 105. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving Camden South, Camden Park, Camden, Elderslie, Spring Farm, Mount Annan, Narellan Vale, Narellan, Cawdor, Menangle, Douglas Park and Appin from the Division of Macarthur to the proposed Division of Hume.
- 106. Objections advocated locating those areas covered by Camden Council in the proposed Division of Macarthur in recognition of their connection to members of the Macarthur family after whom the electoral division is named.²⁵
- 107. While the Division of Macarthur, as it existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution was within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act, it was required to change to accommodate the alterations made to the boundaries of other electoral divisions which were outside these ranges. The augmented Electoral Commission noted the strong arguments, particularly in relation to historic and regional concerns, made with respect to what should be included in the proposed Division of Macarthur. After examining a number of models of potential alternate electoral divisions in an attempt to accommodate these perspectives, the augmented Electoral Commission observed that adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require more substantial adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division continued to be met.
- 108. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged.

The location of the boundary between the Divisions of Cowper and Lyne

- 109. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving the southern part of the Kempsey Shire and part of the Port Macquarie-Hastings Council, including Port Macquarie, from the Division of Lyne into the proposed Division of Cowper.
- 110. Objections concerned whether, based on considerations of community of interest:
 - Port Macquarie should be located in the proposed Division of Lyne,
 - Port Macquarie should be located in the same electoral division as the Port Macquarie-Hastings Council and/or the satellite areas of Wauchope and the Camden Haven, and

- Port Macquarie and Coffs Harbour should be located in the same electoral division.²⁶
- 111. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Cowper and Lyne, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required in order to:
 - ensure the number of electors in both electoral divisions were within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act, and
 - accommodate changes made to adjacent electoral divisions to compensate for the abolition of an electoral division.
- 112. After carefully examining a number of models of potential electoral divisions which reflected the concerns expressed in objections and submissions to the inquiries, the augmented Electoral Commission observed that adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require further adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division continued to be met.
- 113. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged.
- 114. The augmented Electoral Commission observed the Port Macquarie area has experienced relatively large increases in population in recent times,²⁷ and notes that, should this continue, the electoral division in which Port Macquarie and the Port Macquarie-Hastings Council are located in is likely to change in the future.

The location of the Tumut and Tumbarumba Shires

- 115. The Redistribution Committee proposed moving the Tumut and Tumbarumba Shires from the Division of Riverina to the proposed Division of Eden-Monaro.
- 116. Objections concerned whether, on the basis of community of interest grounds, the two Shires should be located in the proposed Division of Riverina or the proposed Division of Eden-Monaro.²⁸
- 117. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Eden-Monaro and Riverina, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required in order to:

- accommodate changes made to adjacent electoral divisions to compensate for the loss of an electoral division.
- 118. Adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require further adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division continued to be met. The augmented Electoral Commission was also conscious of suggestions made to the Redistribution Committee of the value in collocating the two Shires in the same electoral division due to their community of interest.²⁹
- 119. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged.

The electoral division in which the Forbes Shire is to be located

- 120. The Redistribution Committee proposed the Forbes Shire be transferred from the Division of Calare to the proposed Division of Riverina.
- 121. Objections advocated, on the basis of community of interest, locating the Shire in the proposed Division of Calare.³⁰
- 122. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Calare and Riverina, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required to ensure the number of electors in both electoral divisions were within the ranges for the maximum and minimum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act. Adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require further adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electoral division continued to be met.
- 123. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged.

The location of the boundary between the Divisions of Cowper and Page

- 124. The Redistribution Committee proposed transferring electors from the Division of Cowper to the proposed Division of Page in the northern part of the Coffs Harbour Council, from Lowanna, Coramba, Karangi and the northern part of Sapphire Beach, and the eastern part of the Clarence Valley Council.
- 125. Objections advocated, on the basis of community of interest, retaining these areas in the proposed Division of Cowper.³¹

- 126. The augmented Electoral Commission noted that changes to the boundaries of both the Divisions of Cowper and Page, as they existed prior to the commencement of the redistribution, were required in order to:
 - ensure the number of electors in both electoral divisions were within the ranges for the minimum and maximum number of electors permitted by the Electoral Act, and

- 127. Adopting alternative boundaries could prompt different communities of interest concerns and would require further adjustments to ensure the two ranges permitted by the Electoral Act for the maximum and minimum number of electors in an electoral division continued to be met.
- 128. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand unchanged.

Movement of electors between electoral divisions

- 129. The Redistribution Committee noted that, in the absence of any other changes, some two per cent of electors must be moved in order that the number of electoral divisions can be reduced from 48 to 47.³²
- 130. As a result of the adjustments made by the augmented Electoral Commission to the Redistribution Committee's proposal, 16 757 fewer electors have been moved between electoral divisions. Table E outlines the extent of elector movements resulting from the augmented Electoral Commission's redistribution.

Table E: Summary of movement of electors between electoral divisions

	Number	Percentage
Electors remaining in their electoral division	3 935 758	80.92%

Augmented Electoral Commission's approach to naming electoral divisions

131. The naming of federal electoral divisions has been the subject of a number of recommendations from parliamentary committees. The 'Guidelines for naming federal electoral divisions' (the guidelines) were developed by the AEC from recommendations made by the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters in 1995 in its Report on the Effectiveness and Appropriateness of the Redistribution Provisions of Parts III and IV of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918. The guidelines were offered to interested persons when this redistribution was advertised, and are publicly available on the AEC website (see Appendix K).

Renaming the proposed Division of Whitlam

- 132. The Redistribution Committee unanimously proposed renaming the Division of Throsby to 'Whitlam', in honour of the former Prime Minister, the Hon. Edward Gough Whitlam AC QC (1916–2014) in recognition of his service to Australia.
- 133. The Redistribution Committee did not make this proposal lightly, noting the guidelines advise the names of electoral divisions should not be changed or transferred to new areas without very strong reasons. In reaching their decision, the Redistribution Committee made the following points:
 - those making suggestions and comments on suggestions advocated five different electoral divisions which could be renamed 'Whitlam',
 - the guidelines note that consideration should be given to naming electoral divisions after former Prime Ministers,
 - many of the electoral divisions advocated in suggestions and comments on suggestions were not suitable for renaming.³³
- 134. Strong feelings about the name of this electoral division were expressed by a number of those who made objections to the proposed redistribution, commented on objections or made submissions to the inquiries, falling into the following categories:
 - advocating the electoral division should not be re-named and should continue to be known as the Division of Throsby in honour of Dr Charles Throsby (1771–1828), a local pioneer who explored the area,³⁴
 - advocating one of the following electoral divisions become the Division of Whitlam:
 - Banks
 - Blaxland
 - Charlton
 - Fowler
 - Fraser (located in the Australian Capital Territory)35
 - Greenway
 - Hume
 - Macarthur
 - Werriwa
 - a new electoral division should be created and named 'Whitlam'
 - support for the Redistribution Committee's proposal to rename the electoral division as the Division of Whitlam.
- 135. As was the case for the Redistribution Committee, the augmented Electoral Commission was attentive to the guidelines and the material presented to it for consideration. The arguments offered in support of reverting to the previous name of the proposed Division of Whitlam and naming another electoral division as 'Whitlam' were, in the opinion of the augmented Electoral Commission, not substantive enough to warrant a change to the Redistribution Committee's proposal.

³³ Redistribution Committee for New South Wales, op.cit., page 26

³⁴ The Division of Throsby came into being in 1984.

³⁵ On Tuesday 24 November 2015, the augmented Electoral Commission for the Australian Capital Territory announced the Division of Fraser would become the Division of Fenner from Thursday 28 January 2016.

136. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand and the electoral division will be known as the Division of Whitlam.

Renaming the proposed Division of Hunter

- 137. The Redistribution Committee unanimously agreed to rename the proposed Division of Charlton as 'Hunter'. In making this decision, the Redistribution Committee observed:
 - 'Hunter' was a Federation name, having first been used as the name of an electoral division in 1901. As the guidelines note that every effort should be made to retain the names of original federation electoral divisions, the Redistribution Committee considered it would be appropriate to rename another electoral division,
 - the socio-demographic nature of the proposed Division of Charlton changed from an urban provincial electoral division to a largely rural electoral division, and
 - 'Hunter' is an appropriate name for an electoral division located in the geographic area bearing the same name.³⁶
- 138. A small number of objections to the proposed redistribution and comments on objections advocated that this electoral division should retain the name 'Charlton', with the proposed Division of Paterson instead being named 'Hunter'.³⁷
- 139. The guidelines note that the names of electoral divisions should not be changed or transferred to new areas without very strong reasons. Any decision to alter the name of an electoral division is not taken lightly.
- 140. The augmented Electoral Commission considered whether the name proposed by the Redistribution Committee should be changed or retained, but did not believe the arguments offered in support of making these adjustments were substantive enough to warrant change at this time.
- 141. The augmented Electoral Commission therefore concluded the Redistribution Committee's proposal should stand and the electoral division will be known as the Division of Hunter.

Renaming of electoral divisions

- 142. The Redistribution Committee proposed 45 electoral divisions retain their existing name.³⁸
- 143. A small number of objections to the proposed redistribution and comments on objections advocated renaming electoral divisions, as displayed in Table F.³⁹
- 144. The guidelines note that the names of electoral divisions should not be changed or transferred to new areas without very strong reasons. Any decision to alter the name of an electoral division is not taken lightly.
- 145. While noting the contribution to Australian society of those individuals submitted for its consideration and the general relevance of those names submitted, the augmented Electoral Commission considered it was first required to determine whether the name of current electoral divisions should be changed.

³⁹ Those who advocated renaming each of these electoral divisions are displayed in Table Q.

146. The augmented Electoral Commission did not consider that compelling reasons had been presented to change the names of the remaining 45 electoral divisions and concluded the names of each of these electoral divisions will be retained, as proposed by the Redistribution Committee.

Name proposed by the Redistribution Committee	Offered alternative name
Eden-Monaro	Snowy Mountains – to reflect a major geographic factor contained within the proposed electoral division
Farrer	Riverina - to reflect the area contained within the proposed electoral division
Hume	Macarthur – to reflect the connection of the Macarthur family to the Camden/ Narellan region, which is contained within the proposed electoral division
Hunter	Charlton – to retain the name 'Charlton', after Matthew Charlton (1866–1948), Member of the New South Wales Legislative Assembly 1903–10, Member of House of Representatives 1910–28 and leader of the ALP 1922–28
Macarthur	Broughton – in honour of the Right Reverend William Grant Broughton (1788–1853), the first Bishop of Australia and of Sydney
Lyne	Paterson – as the proposed electoral division contains a significant proportion of the existing Division of Paterson, in addition to the Paterson River and township of Paterson
Paterson	Hunter – as the proposed electoral division contains a significant proportion of the existing Division of Hunter, in addition to the Hunter River
Riverina	a woman, Indigenous Australian or Indigenous Australian woman
	Grassby - the objection did not specify who the name was intended to honour
	Hume – to maintain the connection between Wagga Wagga, which is located within the proposed electoral divisions, and Hamilton Hume (1797–1873), an early explorer
	Lawson – after Henry Lawson (1867–1922), the Australian poet and fiction writer of the colonial period

Chapter 3 Implementation of the redistribution

This chapter outlines what the implementation of the redistribution means in practice for residents of New South Wales.

- 149. In accordance with sub-section 73(1) of the Electoral Act, the electoral divisions described in this report came into effect from Thursday 25 February 2016 as this is the day on which the augmented Electoral Commission published a notice in the Gazette determining the names and boundaries of electoral divisions in New South Wales.
- 150. However, members of the House of Representatives will not represent or contest these electoral divisions until after a writ is issued for a general election following the expiration or dissolution of the House of Representatives.
- 151. In practice, this means:
 - electors will continue to be represented by the members of the House of Representatives who were elected at the most recent federal general election on Saturday 7 September 2013 or at a by-election held after this date,
 - members of the House of Representatives represent the electoral divisions which were in place at the most recent federal general election on Saturday 7 September 2013,
 - where relevant, allowances for members of the House of Representatives are calculated based on the electoral divisions in place at the most recent federal general election,
 - from Thursday 25 February 2016, enrolment statistics will be published based on the electoral divisions described in this report,⁴⁰ and
 - from Thursday 25 February 2016, members of the House of Representatives are able to request copies of the electoral roll for any electoral division which includes all or part of the electoral division for which they were elected.⁴¹

When do the new electoral divisions apply?

152. While the new names and boundaries of electoral divisions apply from Thursday 25 February 2016, elections will not be contested on these new electoral divisions until a writ is issued for a general election following the expiration or dissolution of the House of Representatives.

⁴⁰ Section 58 of the Electoral Act requires the Electoral Commissioner to publish on a monthly basis, via a notice in the Gazette, the number of electors enrolled in each electoral division, the average divisional enrolment for each state and territory and the extent to which each electoral division differs from the average divisional enrolment.

⁴¹ Item 15 of sub-section 90B(1) of the Electoral Act specifies the information from the electoral roll which can be supplied to a member of the House of Representatives whose electoral division is affected by a redistribution.

Do I need to do anything to change my electoral division?

- 153. Individuals do not need to take any action where their electoral division changes as the result of a redistribution. Section 86 of the Electoral Act requires the AEC to:
 - transfer the elector to the new electoral roll, and
 - notify the elector their electoral division has changed.⁴²

For how long will the new electoral divisions apply?

154. Sub-section 73(1) of the Electoral Act provides that the new electoral divisions apply until the determination of the next redistribution via publication of a notice in the Gazette. This determination may be made as a result of sub-section 73(1) or sub-section 76(6) of the Electoral Act.

On which electoral divisions would a by-election be contested?

155. By-elections are conducted using the electoral divisions which existed prior to the determination of the redistribution, as provided by sub-sections 73(6) and (7) of the Electoral Act.

How do I find out if my electoral division has changed?

- 156. You can check your enrolment by using the AEC's online enrolment verification facility available at: www.aec.gov.au/check. For privacy reasons, your electoral enrolment will only be confirmed if the details you enter are an exact match to your details on the electoral roll.
- 157. Alternatively, you can contact the AEC on 13 23 26 or use the 'Find my electorate' tool on the AEC website at www.aec.gov.au/electorate, which will enable you to find:
 - which federal electorate you live in,
 - a profile and map of your electoral division, and
 - the name of the incumbent member of the House of Representatives for your electoral division.

Do I need to know my electoral division to enrol or update my enrolment details?

- 158. No, all you need to do is provide the details of your residential address and the AEC will tell you which electoral division you are enrolled for. You can enrol by using:
 - the AEC's online enrolment service available at: www.aec.gov.au/enrol,
 - using the single page online enrolment form available from the AEC website,
 - completing and printing a PDF enrolment form available from the AEC website and returning it to the AEC, or
 - picking up an enrolment form at any AEC office or Australia Post outlet and returning it to the AEC.

⁴² Sub-section 86(3) provides for this notification to be via a notice published in a newspaper or a notice delivered to the elector's address.

Where can I find information about the new electoral divisions?

159. Maps and descriptions of the new electoral divisions are available on the AEC website.

Where can I find information about the electoral divisions which applied at the 2013 federal election?

160. Maps and descriptions of previous electoral divisions are available on the AEC website.

Is geospatial data for the new electoral divisions available?

161. Individual state/territory boundaries are available on the relevant redistribution page and on the Maps and Spatial Data page of the AEC website.

Appendix B: Operation of statutory requirements for the making of a redistribution

Section 73 of the Electoral Act requires the augmented Electoral Commission for New South Wales to:

- make a determination of the names and boundaries of the electoral divisions of New South Wales by a notice published in the Gazette,
- ensure the number of electoral divisions New South Wales is divided into equals the number of members of the House of Representatives to be chosen in New South Wales at a general election, and
- abide by the following requirements:

(4) In making the determination, the augmented Electoral Commission:

- (a) shall, as far as practicable, endeavour to ensure that the number of electors enrolled in each Electoral Division in the State or Territory will not, at the projection time determined under section 63A, be less than 96.5% or more than 103.5% of the average divisional enrolment of that State or Territory at that time; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (a), shall give due consideration, in relation to each proposed Electoral Division, to:
 - (i) community of interests within the proposed Electoral Division, including economic, social and regional interests;
 - (ii) means of communication and travel within the proposed Electoral Division;
 - (iv) the physical features and area of the proposed Electoral Division; and
 - (v) the boundaries of existing Divisions in the State or Territory;

and subject thereto the quota of electors for the State or Territory shall be the basis for the proposed redistribution, and the augmented Electoral Commission may adopt a margin of allowance, to be used whenever necessary, but in no case shall the quota be departed from to a greater extent than one-tenth more or one-tenth less.

(4A) When applying subsection (4), the augmented Electoral Commission must treat the matter in subparagraph (4)(b)(v) as subordinate to the matters in subparagraphs (4)(b)(i), (ii) and (iv).

These statutory requirements are expressed in a hierarchical order.

The purpose of paragraph 4(a) is suggested by its history. It has undergone some transformation since the Commonwealth Electoral Legislation Amendment Act 1983 stipulated that boundaries were to be drawn, as far as practicable, to achieve equal numbers of electors in each of a state's electoral divisions three-and-a-half years after a redistribution. By 1984 'it was observed that the three-and-a-half year rule had in some areas forced the adoption, on purely numerical grounds, of boundaries which took little account of perceived community of interest'.⁴³ Therefore, in 1987, the rule was relaxed to permit a measure of tolerance to plus or minus two percent from average projected enrolment. Subsequently, the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters concluded that:

⁴³ Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters, Report on the Effectiveness and Appropriateness of the Redistribution Provisions of Parts III and IV of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (December 1995), paragraph 4.3

the numerical criteria do not allow "due consideration", in the words of the Act, to be given to the qualitative factors. Rather, the political parties and others attempting to frame electoral boundaries essentially find themselves engaged in a mathematical modelling exercise. In order to relax the enrolment requirements to that extent necessary to allow a realistic degree of flexibility the Committee recommends ... that subsections 66(3)(a) and 73(4)(a) of the Electoral Act be amended, so as to extend the variation from average divisional enrolment allowed three-and-ahalf years after a redistribution from two to 3.5 percent.⁴⁴

The Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters also, in the same report, refers to its recommended amendment as one that 'would maintain substantial restrictions on malapportionment [and] would allow other legitimate policy objectives to be more effectively met'.

Paragraph 4(a) follows this recommendation. The terms of the recommendation, and the discussion which preceded it, make clear the purpose of paragraph 3(a), as it now stands, and how it was intended to interact with the other criteria set out in the sub-paragraphs of paragraph (b), to which also 'due consideration' must be given. The augmented Electoral Commission has considered the objections, comments on objections, submissions on objections to the inquiry and made its proposed redistribution on this basis.

In summary, the primary criteria are to:

- endeavour to ensure that the number of electors in the proposed electoral divisions are within a range of 3.5 per cent below or above the projected enrolment quota at the projection time, and
- ensure that current enrolments are within 10 per cent below or above the current enrolment quota.

The secondary criteria are community of interests, means of communication and travel, and physical features and area. The augmented Electoral Commission also considers the boundaries of existing electoral divisions; however this criterion is subordinate to the others.

a central decision in designing rural electoral divisions should be the location of rural service centres/hubs and their service areas	O29	Dougal Nivison	wherever possible, this should form part of considering the community of interests within an electoral division, noting the requirement to ensure electoral divisions meet the requirements for the minimum and maximum number of electors to be contained in each electoral division
a new system is required to determine the size of country electoral divisions	O48	Rod Guest	the objection was not based on a ground that could be considered by the augmented Electoral Commission as the matters the augmented Electoral Commission is required to consider in determining the boundaries of Electoral Divisions are specified by the Electoral Act
electoral divisions should consist of both rural and urban populations	O102	Ronald Anson	the boundaries of electoral divisions should be formed by an unbroken line except for where a discontinuous or separate boundary is necessary for the purposes of including an island or territory specified by the Electoral Act in an electoral division
inland areas should not be included in electoral divisions which are predominantly coastal	O406	Northern Rivers Guardians Inc.	the objection was not consistent with the requirement of the Electoral Act to ensure electoral divisions meet the requirements for minimum and maximum number of electors to be contained in each electoral division
the range for the minimum and maximum number of electors in an electoral division at the projection time should be changed to plus or minus five per cent of the projected enrolment quota	IPM5	Kenneth Williams	the submission to the inquiry in Port Macquarie was not based on a ground that could be considered by the augmented Electoral Commission as the range for the minimum and maximum number of electors in an electoral division at the projection time is specified by the Electoral Act

Appendix H: Constructing electoral boundaries

The AEC maintains the electoral roll on the basis of alignment to Statistical Area 1s (SA1s),⁴⁵ and is able to provide data on enrolments and projected enrolments at this level. Accordingly, in formulating its proposals, the augmented Electoral Commission used SA1s as its basic building blocks. The SA1s have defined boundaries and are of differing sizes and shapes. In cases where the augmented Electoral Commission considered that a particular SA1 boundary was inappropriate for use as an electoral division boundary, the SA1 was split to provide a more meaningful boundary.

The indicative area of electoral divisions in New South Wales has been calculated by aggregating the area of:

- all land-based SA1s;
- any parts of land-based SA1s; and
- any lakes, ponds, rivers, creeks, wetlands or marshes not already included in land-based SA1s, that are contained within the divisional boundary of each electoral division.

Areas are calculated on the Geocentric Datum of Australia (GDA94) spheroid using the AEC's Electoral Boundary Mapping System (EBMS), developed within the 'MapInfo Professional' software package.

The augmented Electoral Commission used EBMS as an aid to modelling various boundary options. This system was also made available for public use at the office of Australian Electoral Officer for New South Wales in Sydney.

⁴⁵ SA1s are the smallest unit at which ABS makes available disaggregated Census data. There are 54 805 SA1s with populations in the range of 200 – 800. SA1s, which are part of the Australian Statistical Geography Standard, are defined by the ABS and remain stable between censuses. The SA1s currently in use were defined for the 2011 Census.

Further information on these alterations

Mr Cowdroy said that, with respect to the names of electoral divisions, the augmented Electoral Commission had adopted without change the names of electoral divisions proposed by the Redistribution Committee for New South Wales as detailed in its report of 16 October 2015: Proposed redistribution of New South Wales into electoral divisions.

The Division of Throsby will become the Division of Whitlam in honour of the former Prime Minister, the Hon. Edward Gough Whitlam AC QC (1916–2014).

The Guidelines for naming federal electoral divisions note that consideration should be given to naming electoral divisions after former Prime Ministers.

An overview of the augmented Electoral Commission's conclusions on objections to the Redistribution Committee's proposed redistribution is available.

In the opinion of the augmented Electoral Commission, its proposal is not significantly different from the proposal of the Redistribution Committee, and therefore no further input from members of the public will be sought.

The names and boundaries of the federal electoral divisions for New South Wales will apply from 25 February 2016 when a notice of determination is published in the Commonwealth Government Notices Gazette. Federal general elections for which the writ is issued after this date will be contested on the new electoral divisions.

Overview maps will be available on the AEC website on 25 February 2016. Detailed maps and a report outlining the augmented Electoral Commission's reasons for its formal determination will be tabled in the Federal Parliament and will subsequently be made publicly available.

Appendix K: Guidelines for naming federal electoral divisions

Determining the names of federal electoral divisions is part of the process of conducting a federal redistribution within a state or territory.

The criteria used by redistribution committees to propose the names of electoral divisions, and used by augmented electoral commissions to determine the names of electoral divisions, have previously been the subject of recommendations from the Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters. From these recommendations, a set of guidelines were developed as a point of reference only.

It should be noted that redistribution committees and augmented electoral commissions are in no way bound by the guidelines.

Naming after persons

In the main, electoral divisions should be named after deceased Australians who have rendered outstanding service to their country.

When new electoral divisions are created the names of former Prime Ministers should be considered.

Federation Divisional names

Every effort should be made to retain the names of original federation electoral divisions.

Geographical names

Locality or place names should generally be avoided, but in certain areas the use of geographical features may be appropriate (e.g. Perth).

Aboriginal names

Aboriginal names should be used where appropriate and as far as possible existing Aboriginal divisional names should be retained.

Other criteria

The names of Commonwealth electoral divisions should not duplicate existing state districts.

Qualifying names may be used where appropriate (e.g. Melbourne Ports, Port Adelaide).

Names of electoral divisions should not be changed or transferred to new areas without very strong reasons.

When two or more electoral divisions are partially combined, as far as possible the name of the new electoral division should be that of the old electoral division which had the greatest number of electors within the new boundaries. However, where the socio-demographic nature of the electoral division in question has changed significantly, this should override the numerical formula.

Appendix L: General description of how electoral divisions are constituted

The following tables show how each electoral division has been constructed. The unit to display this construction is Statistical Area 2s (SA2s).⁴⁶ Each SA2 comprises a number of SA1s. The SA1s and SA2s which applied at the 2011 Census of Population and Housing have been used.

Electoral divisions are displayed in alphabetical order.

46 SA2s are an area defined in the Australian Statistical Geography Standard, and consist of one or more whole SA1s. Wherever possible, SA2s are based on officially gazetted state/territory suburbs and localities. In urban areas SA2s largely conform to whole suburbs and combinations of whole suburbs, while in rural areas they define functional zones of social and economic links. Geography is also taken into account in SA2 design.
