

Want to work at a federal election?

APPLICATION PROCESS

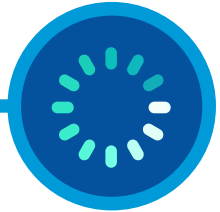

Head to www.aec.gov.au to submit your Registration of Interest.

Receive the confirmation email.
No further action is required.

Election date is announced.

AEC assesses your application to match your skills to required needs in your nominated locations.

EMPLOYMENT PROCESS

AEC will contact you if a suitable role is available and advise the role details, times and location.

Receive a Letter of Offer, if you are interested and available.

Receive a Confirmation of Employment Letter, which will include the details of the role and required training.

Complete the training.
Depending on your position, this could be home-based online training, group-based face to face or on the job training.

Perform the role and get paid. Work will commence either before, on or after election day, depending on your role.
