

Alex Lewis

From: Darren Churchill [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, 8 April 2013 1:29 PM
To: FAD
Subject: Fwd: Australian Democrats Submission (from Roger Howe, National Secretary) [DLM=For-Official-Use-Only]

Categories: FAD Correspondence

Dear Alex,

Thanks for the follow-up phone call.

It seems there was a problem with transmission.

Forwarding now from another account.

Regards,
Darren

Darren Churchill
National President, Australian Democrats
[REDACTED]

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: Darren Churchill <[REDACTED]>
Date: 8 April 2013 12:05:30 AEST
To: FAD <FAD@aec.gov.au>
Cc: Roger Howe <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Re: Australian Democrats Submission (from Roger Howe, National Secretary) [DLM=For-Official-Use-Only]

Dear Alex,

The said boxes were deliberately left empty. ie. Not part of our submission. They may over the next two weeks contain documents to be sent as part of our response.

There is no documentation for those folders that is relevant to our submission at this stage. A4 has been labelled as "Allegations" folders - and may indeed become relevant to contain documents when we respond to the faction's correspondence.

Kind regards,
Darren

Darren Churchill
National President, Australian Democrats
[REDACTED]

Sent from my iPhone

On 08/04/2013, at 9:35, FAD <FAD@aec.gov.au> wrote:

For-Official-Use-Only

Dear Mr Churchill,

The AEC has received the covering letter of your submission, the index of the material and the statutory declaration.

We have also received 17 emails attaching the following information:

- A1 Item 1
- A1 Item 2
- A1 Item 3
- A1 Item 4
- A2 Item 1
- A2 Item 2
- A2 Item 3
- A2 Item 4,5
- A3 Item 1
- A3 Item 2
- A5 Item 1
- A5 Item 2
- A5 Item 3 Reports Submissions
- A6
- A7
- A1 Item 5 Part 1 – resending
- A1 Item 5 Part 2 – resending

It appears that there may be items under the heading 'A4' that we have not received. If this is the case, could you please forward them to fad@aec.gov.au as soon as possible?

Kind regards,

Alex
&nbs