Subject: Please remove AEC email address

Hello everyone,

Please remove the AEC email from future discussion on this list. It is most inappropriate to be cc'g them into every piece of party correspondence.

NE has the real business of administering the Party to get on with. That does not involve annoying respected public servants with our internal bickering.

Also, please remove any factional mailing lists and other people who are not part of the NE as determined by members and upheld by yesterday's AEC determination.

Kind regards,
Darren

Hello [REDACTED]

We're writing to let you know that the group you tried to contact (NEmotions) may not exist, or you may not have permission to post messages to the group. A few more details on why you weren't able to post:

The person who asked "who are you" is displaying symptoms of a person who does not understand how an email list works and probably thinks their reply is going to the one person and not to the entire cc'd list of addresses

Alternatively the person may be a "troll" out to create a controversy by posting a message to all in the hope that dissent will be created amongst the email recipients .

The member might even be neither of the above, merely a member of the NE or the NE's mailing list who feels powerless and frustrated by this lingering dispute , which no party or faction has managed to resolve

The proposed motion may not have the effect of resolving the issue as there maybe a counter motion/amendment already being drafted .The filling of the positions in the motion is perhaps premature, it might have been sufficient for a single person to act as the party agent for purposes of liaising with the AEC, so that a definitive outcome can be achieved .
