How to make your vote count. Federal election, Saturday 2 July 2016

On election day, you will receive two ballot papers: a green one for the House of Representatives and a white one for the Senate.

Don't worry if you make a mistake. You can ask for another ballot paper and start again.

House of Representatives

Number every box in the order of your choice.

Senate

On the Senate ballot paper you can:

- number at least 6 boxes above the line for the parties or groups of your choice, or
- number at least 12 boxes below the line for individual candidates of your choice.

Practise voting at www.aec.gov.au/practise or call 13 23 26 for more information.

♣ These polling places have wheelchair access ♣ These polling places have wheelchair access with assistance

Remember, voting is compulsory if you are on the electoral roll. If you vote more than once it is a criminal offence.
