

REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has received the following applications regarding the Register of Political Parties maintained under Part XI of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act).

Change of name

name of party:	Liberal Democratic Party
current registered abbreviation:	Liberal Democrats (LDP)
proposed registered abbreviation:	Liberal Democrats

This application is made by the secretary, and two other members of the party.

Application for registration of new party

proposed name of party:	Bullet Train For Australia
proposed abbreviation:	none sought
proposed registered officer	Timothy Bohm 27 Phillip Avenue Watson ACT 2602

This application is made by the secretary, and nine other members of the party, and the party wishes to receive election funding.

If you believe that the applications should not succeed because, under the Electoral Act:

- the party is not an eligible political party;
- the party's application has not been correctly made; or
- the party's proposed abbreviation is prohibited, you may lodge an objection. Objections must be received by the AEC by 15 May 2013, must be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to:
