

REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has received the following application to change the name and abbreviation of a registered political party under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act).

current registered name: Natural Medicine Party current registered abbreviation: n/a proposed registered name: Health Australia Party proposed registered abbreviation: HAP

The application is made by three members of the party.

current registered name: Country Alliance
current registered abbreviation: n/a proposed registered name: Australian Country Party proposed registered abbreviation: No abbreviation sought

The application is made by three members of the party.

If you believe that the application should not succeed because, under the Electoral Act:

- the party's application has not been correctly made; or
- the party's proposed name or abbreviation is prohibited, you may lodge an objection. Objections must be received by the AEC by 14 September 2015, must be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to:
