

REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) has received the following application to change the name, abbreviation and logo of a registered political party in the Register of Political Parties under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act).

current registered name	Australian Liberty Alliance
current registered abbreviation	ALA
proposed name:	Yellow Vest Australia
proposed abbreviation:	YVA
the image displayed here is the proposed registered party logo for Australian Liberty Alliance:

The application was made by three members of the Australian Liberty Alliance and included payment of the $500 application fee. You may lodge an objection if you believe that the application by the Australian Liberty Alliance to change the name, abbreviation and logo of a registered political party should not succeed because under the Electoral Act:

- the application should be refused under section 129; or
- the Electoral Commission should refuse to enter a logo of the party in the Register under section 129A.

Objections must be received by the AEC by 26 March 2019, must address the relevant criteria above and be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to:
