For the past 14 years, the elected Federal MPs for Bennelong (both Liberal and Labor) have maintained their electorate office within Epping town centre. If you move us to another electorate, we will again be pushed to the periphery, as we are in local government. Epping has long enjoyed a cohesion with Eastwood, sharing similar aspirations in lifestyle and education, with an interesting and harmonious cultural blend. Previous elected Federal MPs, again both Liberal and Labor, including a Prime Minister, maintained their electorate office in Eastwood. Why rip the heart out of our community? Our current MP, Jerome Laxale, has worked hard to instigate major infrastructure programs around Epping town centre. Moving us to another electorate could jeopardise the optimum realisation of these projects.
Please leave us in Bennelong.
