Submission on the proposed Tasmanian redistribution details

Category: Names
Details: At the time of Settlement the Tasmanian Tribal population was only around 3,000. Usually Settlers claimed land far from tribal regions, so most likely this "Tongerlongeter" was a violent murderer, even to other Tribes if known to attack/murder Settlers. It wasn't unusual for tribes to annihilate another. Naming the electorate after Tongerlongeter, could be tantamount to naming it after Pol Pot. The name of the (reforming) electorate doesn't need to change. It works. Keep it. Stop wasting money. Note, Aboriginals are not one racial group. They include various peoples (tribes). They warred and had their own autonomy. Due to the violence, most become managed and we all come to share the land. Tongerlongeter is one reason tribes didn't uphold their space due to his crimes.
