Dear AEC,

This is a complaint, about the proposed name change, of the Franklin Electorate to Tongerlongeter. As an indigenous Australian from interstate, (who calls Tasmania home), my feelings are very hurt, and I am greatly offended, that this is "even being considered".

My mob, and my people, who, some are white fellas, and some are real black fellas, we all are Australian).

We have all had enough of "this bureaucratic box ticking", to try to appease us, while us indigenous peoples are now "outnumbered", by the amount of bloody curry muncher Indians who are here, to take advantage of "stuff that they haven't earned or deserve". Their food stinks like crap, and they are so bloody hard to understand.

Now look, leave the Franklin name alone.

How the hell, can so many people spell, this other bloody name, while "Franklin" is far easier.

Now, stop all of this nonsense bureaucratic crap, that has you all even, tied up in knots, and you bloody fools, cannot and refuse to do your bloody jobs properly.

Enough is enough. We will continue to push back, and :yes, our feelings are hurt, we're offended, we're upset and we're angry.

Enough of this crap.
