With respect to the previous inhabitants of Tasmania prior to colonisation, the current community doesn't care for pandering to the minority view that place names and in this case the name of an electorate should be changed to reflect an unknown person, indigenous or otherwise, whom has had no bearing on modern society. Change for the sake of change and to appease a minority group in modern society is disrespectful and un-Australian. The public should be informed that this change is proposed and the Act changed so that changes of electorate names can only be approved by the voters of that electorate by form of a vote. Please reconsider the proposed change and stop wasting tax payer funds on issues that need no change. Kind Regards, disgusted Franklin voter.
