I oppose the renaming of Franklin.

The continued use of taxpayer money for summary changes such as this, which add no meaningful improvement to the lives of ordinary Australians, needs to stop. I object to taxpayer money being used to rename Franklin.

It is against the AECs standard procedure to preserve the names of seats that have existed since the time of Federation. Second, and much more important, if Batman has been retired as the name of a federal parliamentary seat, because of his unsavoury personal conduct, isnt it a double standard now to commemorate in this way Tongerlongeter, whose many casualties included women and children?
