I am writing to object the renaming to Tongerlongeter. Like many, I am tired of this constant "decolonisation" which is just erasing our history as our people and culture are also replaced by mass migration. The government are traitors that have sold out this country and they force us to pay for it. Every day is a new betrayal and humiliation. It's very clear Australia and Australians play no part in the governments plans for the future of this country. And likewise I believe legacy obsolete Australians such as myself should have no loyalty to this regime. You do not represent us and your treason will not be forgotten.
