I am a descendent of first and second fleet australian settler convicts who were forced here and given no choice other than to survive once their sentence was completed.
My ancestors despite having no choice, built our beautiful country.
Why are other settlers who too built this beautiful country having their history snuffed out in favour of the naming of an electorate by a man who was a murderer and not democratically minded, but partiarchical and violent? This is really saddenning because i love our country and Tasmania. The AECs move to rename this electorate is very sad and will only cause more division i fear. We need to stop politicising peace between all people in Australia.
Please leave the electorate as it is or choose a far more deserving indigenous man or woman who has actually contributed something positive.
