Submission: Names and Boundaries

Details: Although more information is provided in the document on the seat by seat changes, a brief summary is still shown. The central Queensland seat of Flynn shall be abolished and divided between the divisions of Capricornia, Hinkler, Wide Bay, and Maranoa. Additionally, the division of Bonner in Brisbane's east shall also be abolished and divided between Griffith, Bowman, and Moreton. To make it 30 seats, the seat of Hayden, named after former Governor General and Leader of the Australian Labor Party Bill Hayden AC shall be created from territory currently in Wide Bay, Maranoa, and Blair. Edwards, named after former Queensland Liberal Party Leader and CEO of World Expo 88 Sir Llewelyn Edwards AC shall be created in Brisbane's northwest from territory currently in Dickson, Petrie, Lilley, Brisbane, and Ryan. Changes are required to every division except Leichhardt, with maps provided to help determine future boundaries.

Draft changes

This suggestion calls for major changes to the boundaries of a majority of electorates in Queensland.

Short Summary

The seat of Flynn in Central Queensland and the eastern Brisbane seat of Bonner shall be abolished, reflecting underenrolment in many central and southern Queensland seats and throughout Brisbane City Council, respectively.

Hayden will be created in southeast Queensland, comprising of the entire Noosa Shire, Gympie Region (except Cooloola SA2), South Burnett Region (except Kingaroy Surrounds - North), the Somerset Region, and the areas of Crows Nest-Rosalie currently in Maranoa. The seat takes in territory currently in Blair, Maranoa, and Wide Bay. This seat is to be named after Bill Hayden AC, who was the leader of the Australian Labor Party from 1977 to 1983, Foreign Affairs and Trade Minister from 1983 to 1988, Treasurer from June to November 1975, Social Security Minister from 1972 to 1975 and the Member for Oxley from 1961 to 1988. He was also Governor-General of Australia from 1988 to 1996.

The other seat called Edwards, is in Brisbane's northwest and includes areas such as Ferny Grove, Mitchelton, Everton Park, Albany Creek, Carseldine, Enoggera, Stafford and Windsor. It takes in territory previously in Brisbane, Lilley, Ryan, Dickson, and Petrie. This seat is named after Sir Llewellyn Edwards AC, who was the leader of the Liberal Party in the Queensland Legislative Assembly and Treasurer and Deputy Premier from 1978 to 1983, MLA for Ipswich (1972 to 1983), chairman and chief executive of World Expo 88, twelfth Chancellor of the University of Queensland from 1993 to 2009 and company director.
