Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names

Details: More than half of the material published by the AEC is by people arguing against changing the name of Grey, some of them argue that now is not the time I change.
I have to agree with this.
Lowitija O'Donaghue seems to be a problematic person to name an electorate after. Scott McLennan in Submission OB333 sets out reasons as to the issues that are problematic with using her name.
Googling her doesn't provide any clarity as she seems to be referred to all of the options that Scott ran through.
I think it would be best to hold off naming an electorate for her until there is a bit more clarity about what her name actually was.
It's not as if there won't be another redistribution at some point in the future and the name can be used then.
