Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names

Details: I agree with Tilly, women do more things than be nurses, not that there's anything wrong with nursing! If we think about the statement that you can't be what you can't see, then what is the impact of only seeing one profession represented? The way the information has been presented by the Redistribution Committee is making two arguments:
* women are only nurses
* First Nations women are only nurses.

O'Donaghue is not the right name to use.

I like the idea of Kate Cocks, the first woman police constable in the British Empire (but I suspect that's probably a step to far for you).
