Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names

Details: I note the proposal to rename Grey to O'Donoghue. In principle, I support this proposed name change as i feel it is important to recognise first nation people and their significant leaders. As an alternative I suggest the new name should be Lowitja, the first name of the late Dr Lowitja ODonoghue AC CBE DSG. I feel this would be more appropriate as the name is an aboriginal name. I also note that the health research institute named in her honour is called the Lowitja Institute. Lowitja is the name she was often called and I feel it would be more fitting to use the name for the electorate Thank you for considering my suggestion.
