Details:

I believe the electorate of Grey should retain its original name as it is one of the original South Australian single member electorates in the House of Representatives. Just as the AEC attempts to retain the name of the original 63 single member seats from the 1901 election, so should it retain original single member seats names in South Australia and Tasmania from 1903, although they might not date back that extra 2 years to 1901.
