I believe that the name of our electorate should remain as is. This is our identity. I am concerned that this is a numbers game and that city votes would mean that our country votes will diminish as a conservative vote. As a rural electorate we struggle to have our voices prioritised. Our incomes are affected by the elements and often do not get priority. While seasons are difficult we don't receive financial incentives but when we have a good harvest they welcome our taxes. We must remain a rural voice. Thankyou for alerting us to this issue.
