Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Boundaries

Details: I am against any redistribution of the Grey electorate that will include the urban fringe of Adelaide's northern suburbs. This is a regional electorate that represents the voice and needs of country populations, not those living twenty minutes from Adelaide. Rural populations are already badly under-represented in parliament, and this would further lose touch and silence those communities. If anything, Grey should be split into two or three new seats, to better represent those regions and their needs.
