Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names

Details: The commissions reasons for renaming Grey to ODonoghue are contradictory to previous arguments against naming of divisions. It was recently argued at the WA federal redistribution that names should not be based on a persons ties to the proposed division because boundaries change over time. This argument was used is retaining the name Bullwinkel as opposed to that of other prominent perons who had stronger ties to the proposed seat. Therefore the commission must reconsider their argument for the renaming of Grey and use they same logic here.
