To whom it concerns

We are totally opposed to the proposed re-naming of the electoral seat of Grey.

History should not be rewritten. Choices made then, may not be in accordance with what we now know, and how society perceives things now, however the past is still part of our history.

Lowitja O'Donoghue may have been a very honorable lady, however changing the name of Grey, will have absolutely NO REAL BENEFIT to our lives today.

On the contrary, it would mean a huge cost to the tax payers, to re-badge all the paperwork associated with the operations of a parliamentary division.

In these current times when many people, are under immense financial pressure and struggling to survive in their businesses and provide for their families, they aren't concerned about political correctness or the name of their electoral seat. They're concerned about further financial burden, which would be passed on, either to them or the younger generations in the future.

Please take our comment into consideration when thinking of making this unnecessary change.

Yours sincerely,

William F and Ann Rodda
