Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names

Details: I do NOT think the electorate of Grey should be changed to O'Donoghue. There is a lot of history here going back over 120 years and it should be preserved.
From Wikipedia: The division was one of the seven established when the former Division of South Australia was redistributed on 2 October 1903 and is named for Sir George Grey, who was Governor of South Australia from 1841 to 1845 (and later Prime Minister of New Zealand).
