From Ian (Danny) Keller
Councillor of The District council of Mount Remarkable.

Country electorates should represent Country people.
Grey, the largest electorate in SA comfortably sits in the permissible redistribution quota range, there is no need to alter it.
By adding parts of City Councils does not align to the Regional, Rural & Remote needs of Grey.
While Lowitja O'Donoghue has been a great achiever her recognition can be served in many other ways. New names are usually associated with new organisations whether town planning, teams or localities, not by changing existing names.
An absolute waste of money , time & resources as we are well aware of within local government councils.
Recently the electoral commission could not get votes counted in Narungga & Stuart accurately and on time imagine the debarkle of changing the name of Grey which has been established for over 100 years. Coober Pedy residents didn't all get a chance to vote in the last state election.

I whole heartedly fully support the member for Grey, Tom Vennings submission.
My submission supports retaining the current electorate name of Grey.
My submission supports retaining the current boundary's of Grey.

Thank you for considering my honest opinions,
Yours Truly
Ian Keller
