Submission on the proposed South Australian redistribution details

Category: Names and Boundaries

Details: The current "suggestion" that the electorate of Grey will not only have a name change (I have no objection to that) but that it may/will be enlarged graphically to include other former electorates is a cruel step which will disenfranchise rural people even further. {SA as separate from Federal electorates, effectively now doesn,t have a State government but rather an ADELAIDE government}
How can the elected member in large electorates easily get around to his/her constituents or conversely they get to even meet them personally? Sure they can be phoned/emailed but compare that to many inner suburbs where members can virtually walk all their streets! Equality of numbers doesnt neccasarily equate to equal representation
