

NOTICE OF PARTY REGISTRATION DECISION
APPLICATION TO REGISTER A NON-PARLIAMENTARY PARTY IN THE REGISTER OF POLITICAL PARTIES - APPROVED
VICTORIAN SOCIALISTS

Notice of decision under subsection 133(1A) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act) and Statement of Reasons

I am writing in accordance with subsection 133(1A) of the Electoral Act to notify you of the determination of the application to register Victorian Socialists (the Party) as a non-Parliamentary party in the Register of Political Parties (the Register).

I am authorised to determine this application for party registration under Part XI of the Electoral Act as a delegate of the Electoral Commission.

Decision

I have decided to approve the application for registration. Consequently, I have entered the following Party in the Register.

Name of party:	Victorian Socialists
Logo:
Registered Officer:	Corey Oakley
Registered Officer's address:	54 Victoria Street CARLTON SOUTH VIC 3053
Does party seek election funding:	YES

Materials I have taken into account

In making this decision, I had regard to:

- the application to register as a non-Parliamentary party received by the AEC on 18 January 2019;
- the results of the testing of the Party's membership list conducted by the AEC in accordance with the sampling methodology developed by the Australian Bureau of Statistics;
- Part XI of the Electoral Act;
- the Commonwealth Electoral (Logo Requirements) Determination 2016;
- internet searches of trademarked and licenced logos undertaken by a service provider engaged by the AEC;
- written particulars received by the AEC in response to the subsection 132(1) notice published on 5 March 2019 from:
  - Max on 1 April 2019;
- the reply submitted to the AEC by the Party under subsection 132(5) of the Electoral Act on 5 April 2019 to the written particulars of Max;

- the Register of Political Parties of each Australian state and territory; and
- the AEC Party Registration Guide.

Findings of Fact

On the material before me, I make the following findings:

Membership list

The membership list submitted by the Party contained 550 members. AEC staff cross-checked this membership list with the Commonwealth Electoral Roll (the Roll), as required by subsection 123(3) of the Electoral Act.

These searches identified that:

- one of the 550 submitted members was unable to be matched to the Roll;
- No members were duplicated within the membership list; and
- Four members supported the registration of other political parties.

Accordingly, 545 of the 550 members on the list supplied by the Party were able to be matched to the Roll.

In accordance with the random sampling formula provided by the Australian Bureau of Statistics, a list of 545 members requires a random sample of 47 contactable members to confirm they are members of the Party, with up to six denials of membership, in order for me to have statistical confidence that the Party has 500 members.

The AEC attempted to contact 57 members, as some were unable to be contacted or provided a neutral response. Of the responses received, 47 members confirmed their membership, while no members denied membership of the Party.

Accordingly, I am satisfied the Party meets the requirements of paragraph 126(2)(ca) of the Electoral Act.

Party constitution

A copy of the constitution of the Party accompanied the application as required by paragraph 126(2)(f) of the Electoral Act. The constitution provided in the application for registration:

- is in writing; and
- sets out the aims of the Party, at least one of which being promoting the election of its candidates to the Senate and/or House of Representatives.

Accordingly, I am satisfied that the Party's constitution meets the requirements of having a written constitution set out in the definition of eligible political party at subsection 123(1) of the Electoral Act, and in accordance with the definition of political party at section 4 of the Electoral Act.

Party name

The Party name Victorian Socialists:

- does not comprise more than 6 words;
- is not obscene;

- is not the name, or an abbreviation or acronym of the name of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the Party) that is a recognised political party;
- does not so nearly resemble the name, abbreviation or acronym of the name of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the Party) that is a recognised political party that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym;
- is not one that a reasonable person would think suggests a connection or relationship exists between the Party and a registered party;
- does not comprise the words “Independent Party”;
- does not contain the word “Independent” and the:
  - name, or abbreviation or acronym of the name of a recognised political party; or
  - matter that so nearly resembles the name or an abbreviation or acronym of a recognised political party that the matter is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym.

Accordingly, I am satisfied on the materials before me that there is no basis to refuse the application for registration from the Victorian Socialists under section 129 of the Electoral Act.

Party logo

The logo set out in the application for registration:

- is not obscene;
- does not so nearly resemble the logo of any other person that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that logo;
- is not one that a reasonable person would think suggests that a connection or relationship exists between the applicant and a registered political party if that connection or relationship does not in fact exist;
- does not comprise the words “Independent Party”;
- does not contain the word “Independent” and the:
  - name, or abbreviation or acronym of the name of a recognised political party; or
  - matter that so nearly resembles the name or an abbreviation or acronym of a recognised political party that the matter is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym;
- is in black and white;
- is in a vector graphic in electronic format;
- is 100% black in a CMYK colour space;
- is contained within a frame of 10 mm by 10 mm;
- is able to be reproduced correctly within a frame of 7 mm by 7 mm;
- does not include live text, transparency or overprinting and custom halftone, transfer curve or colour profile settings; and
- is in a PDF file, of less than 5 megabytes, that complies with International Standard ISO 32000-1:2008 as in force at the time this instrument commences.

Accordingly, on the basis of the materials before me, I am satisfied that the proposed logo submitted with the Party's application meets the requirements of subsection 126(2AA) and section 129A of the Electoral Act and the specifications described in Commonwealth Electoral (Logo Requirements) Determination 2016.

Other procedural application requirements

I am satisfied that the application for party registration meets the requirements of paragraphs 126(2)(c), 126(2)(d), 126(2)(e) and 126(2)(g) of the Electoral Act. The application for registration as a political party:

- was in writing, signed by the secretary of the Party and by the registered officer of the Party;
- set out the name and address of the person who is to be the registered officer of the Party for the purposes of the Electoral Act;
- advised whether the Party wishes to receive moneys under Division 3 of Part XX of the Electoral Act;
- set out the name and address of the applicant and particulars of the capacity in which each applicant makes the application; and
- was accompanied by a fee of $500.

On 27 February 2019, I determined that the application had passed the initial assessment and approved the advertisement of the application under paragraph 132(1)(c) of the Electoral Act. A notice of the application was advertised on the AEC website and in 10 major newspapers 5 March 2019. The closing date for objections was 5 April 2019.

Matters raised in written particulars

Written particulars were lodged by Max, which were assessed as addressing the requirements of section 132 of the Electoral Act and were published on the AEC website.

Max's objection includes that:

- "the application in question nominates a name which 'is the name, or is an abbreviation or acronym of the name, of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the party to which the application relates) that is a recognised political party'. The other party in question being the recognised political party *Victorian Socialists* registered in Victoria. Thus the application should be rejected under s129(c)";
- "the application in question nominates a name which 'so nearly resembles the name, or an abbreviation or acronym of the name, of another political party (not being a political party that is related to the party to which the application relates) that is a recognised political party that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that name or that abbreviation or acronym, as the case may be'. The other party in question being the recognised political party *Victorian Socialists* registered in Victoria. Thus the application should be rejected under s129(d)";
- "the application in question nominates a logo which 'is the logo of any other person'. That other person being the body politic and recognised political party *Victorian Socialists* registered in Victoria. Thus the application should be rejected under s129A(b)"; and

- “the application in question nominates a logo which ‘so nearly resembles the logo of any other person that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that logo’. That other person being the body politic and recognised political party *Victorian Socialists* registered in Victoria. Thus the application should be rejected under s129A(c)”.

Response to matters raised in written particulars

The Party responded to the objection submitted by Max. The Party’s response to the objection submits that:

- “the objection should be dismissed on the grounds that sections 129 expressly allows the registration of a party by the same name as a related political party”;
- “it is abundantly clear that the party seeking the registration of the name ‘Victorian Socialists’ to the register maintained by the AEC is related to the Victorian Socialists registered with the VEC”;
- in relation to paragraph 129A(b) and (c), “the use of the term ‘person’ should be interpreted as drawing a distinction between individuals and political parties”; and
- “it is appropriate to allow the registration of the logo used by the Victorian Socialists registered in Victoria where as shown above the parties are related”.

AEC consideration

A review of the register of political parties maintained by the Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC) shows a party registered by the VEC as “Victorian Socialists”.

Subsection 123(2) of the Electoral Act states that:

- (2) For the purposes of this Part, 2 political parties shall be taken to be related if:*
- (a) one is a part of the other; or*
  - (b) both are parts of the same political party.*

The Party’s response to Max’s objection confirms and provides evidence that the applicant Party is a related party to the Victorian Socialists registered by the VEC.

I consider that, under subsection 123(2) of the Electoral Act, the applicant Party is related to the party registered by the VEC as the Victorian Socialists. On this basis, the Electoral Commission is not required to refuse the Party’s application for registration under subsection 129(1) of the Electoral Act.

Max states that the Party’s logo should not be entered in the Register under paragraphs 129A(b) and (c) of the Electoral Act, as the logo is that of an “other person”, or so nearly resembles the logo of an “other person” that it is likely to be confused with or mistaken for that logo.

I do not agree with Max’s objection that the logo is that of an “other person”, as the applicant is a related party to the party registered by the VEC as the Victorian Socialists. On this basis, the Electoral Commission is not required to refuse to enter the Party’s logo into the Register under section 129A of the Electoral Act.

Accordingly, I am satisfied on the materials before me that there is no basis to refuse the application for registration from the Victorian Socialists under section 129 or section 129A of the Electoral Act.

Your review rights

Under subsection 141(2) of the Electoral Act, a person (including an organisation) affected by the decision who is dissatisfied with the decision, may make a written application to the Electoral Commission for internal review of this decision within 28 days after the day on which the decision first comes to the notice of that person. There is no fee payable for requesting an internal review.

Requests for review of this decision should be addressed to Mr Tom Rogers, Australian Electoral Commissioner, and emailed to commission.secretariat@aec.gov.au or by post to Locked Bag 4007, Canberra City ACT 2601.

How do I request an internal review?

In accordance with subsections 141(2) and 141(3) of the Electoral Act, an application for review must:

- be in writing;
- specify the name of the applicant; and
- set out the reasons for making the application.

If you wish to apply for additional time beyond the 28 days to make an application for review of the delegate's decision, please also include the reasons for the application for additional time.

Who conducts an internal review?

The Electoral Commission, which is comprised of three members, the Australian Electoral Commissioner, a judicial member and a non-judicial member, conducts internal reviews. Under subsection 141(4) of the Electoral Act, the Electoral Commission shall review an application and make a decision to either:

- affirm the decision under review;
- vary the decision under review; or
- set aside the decision under review and make a decision in substitution for the decision set aside.

What can I do if I disagree with the outcome of an internal review?
